Gawdama's Teaching by Hiding Whole Truth (Lying)

Don't forget how Gawdama obtained "enlightenment". His soul left the body and entered heaven and he conversed with God the Creator. God showed or talked to him about the truth and answers to the questions he was ignorant about. He decided that God was the ultimate King that can control anything and people have to work hard to free themselves from the creation. That's how he formulated "nirvana". All the cause-and-effect theories he lied to people about are not natural accidental phenomenon. He lied by completely hiding, omitting, and not mentioning about the Supreme Creator of Life! In short, Nirvana is a whim and not achievable. 98% of Buddhists in Myanmar have no clue about the true story anyway. They just feel comfortable worshipping idols that are so ugly and ridiculous in my eyes anyway. I repeat: Buddhist idols are so ugly and ridiculous. Lastly, if those 98% ignorant idiots would understand about Nirvana, suicide of the soul, no one would want to practice to achieve or even want to call themselves Buddhists. Gawdama was a powerful martial artist with very high internal strength, Life Force within. Ignorant idiots in the world think he's a deity with supernatural power because of that. I too have very high-level Life Force capabilities in me, but I always told them there is Creator who they should always be talking to. The Creator will start communicating with you if you keep talking to Him.
