To Whom it May Concern:

We have worked with Christopher McGrath on a specific yet very complex networking issue and hold him in the absolute highest regard. He competently and in a very timely manner identified our problem while using a solution oriented approach and has demonstrated his dedication to our company. I have absolute confidence that we can count on him in our times of need and when basic maintenance requires in depth understanding.

Let me outline some of the reasons why we recommend him for employment with your company:

- Punctuality
- Competence in troubleshooting
- Comprehensive explanation on how to avoid and maintain stability
- Complete and friendly professionalism

In short, it has been a distinct pleasure to have worked with Christopher McGrath and we are able to make this recommendation without any reservations whatsoever. Please feel free to call me at the number below if I you have any questions or if can add anything further.

Sincerely,
